

THE CENTRAL RECORD

FOURTEENTH YEAR.

LANCASTER, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1903.

NUMBER 2

THE GOODS THAT Tell the Story

We have on display one of the largest and most attractive Spring and Summer stocks of merchandise we have ever shown. Shakespeare says "Lend every man thine ears," and everyone wants your ears to tell you the merits of his goods. But, as you well know, nine times out of ten the goods do not bear out the story. The loan we ask is your eyes. They are the ultimate judges. To their verdict we confidently appeal. More money is lost in this country by misplaced investments and misplaced confidence than by any other cause. This kind of wreckage covers the mercantile ocean and strews the shores of the business sea. There is just one compass to go by, one anchor to trust to, that is invest your money where years of unbroken confidence has made merchandising the most equal exchange of value and money. Every dollar you spend here you are sure to receive in return a dollar's worth. Cheap prices but no cheap goods is the foundation upon which we have built our gigantic business.

We also sell King Quality shoes for Men, which have been pronounced the best up to date line and most reasonable prices of any standard line offered to the trade. See them. We know you'll like them.

CLOTHING. CLOTHING

We have moved our Clothing up stairs. We are closing out this stock at cost. So you will do well to look through this line before you buy. We can save you money. We have quite a good assortment of Men's Boys' and Children's Suits and Pants and are selling them for cost, and, in many instances, for less than cost.

MILLINERY

You should not fail to visit our Millinery Department up stairs.

We are always glad to make new acquaintances, and meet old ones. Come in, look around and don't feel under obligations to buy a cent's worth unless you see exactly what you want at the price you want to pay.

Logan Dry Goods Co.

Of Local Interest.

"Just For Fun," April 10.

Many gardens have been broken up. You can't afford to miss it. "Just For Fun," Court house, tonight (Friday), April 10.

The circus drew a big crowd to Stanford Monday. We wish a good one would come this way.

Judging from the new garden tools we see carried across town, much work will be done in the truck patches.

The Junior Endeavor will have an Easter service Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

To Jurymen.

The money to pay the Jurymen has arrived, and you will receive your pay by calling at McRoberts' drug store.

County Treasurer.

The term of O. W. Shugars having expired, Mr. B. F. Hudson was elected county treasurer by the Fiscal Court Tuesday.

To Correspondents.

Our friends, the advertisers, take complete possession of this issue, so we were compelled to omit most all of the communications, which were exceptionally good this week.

As the C. E. had a business meeting and appointed Miss Lizzie Brown treasurer, she requests that all members call on her to pay all back dues Sunday April 12.

See list of unrecorded deeds in this issue. Clerk Doty must dispose of them, so if you want your property secured, better see about having the deed recorded.

"Just For Fun" is all right. See it at Court-house to night, April 10. Prices. 25c 35c and 50c. Reserved seats at McRoberts' drug store.

One local painter tells us he has fourteen houses to paint this Spring. As all other hands are busy, prospects are good for much improvement.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet in the prayer meeting room Saturday, at 2 o'clock. The C. W. B. M. service will immediately follow this meeting. All are invited to attend.

The blasting at the rock quarry on Danville street is a nuisance, but it must be done. Some immense charges are put in, enough to shake the plastering on the houses in China.

Brother Kills Brother.

In a dispute over business matters at their home near Paint Lick, John Metcalfe shot and killed his brother Ben. Both men were married and lived with their father. Metcalfe is in jail and refuses to discuss the affair.

Thank You, Bro. Walton.

Lexington Democrat:—Editor Louis Landram's Lancaster Record was 14 years old the other day, and is even better grown in knowledge and understanding than in years. The Record is an ornament to journalism, and its editor to manhood.

Hemp.

It is almost impossible to get hemp hands. $1.25 per hundred pounds is offered hands, but they are not forthcoming. The yield in Garrard is enormous, and it is feared much will go over, as hands cannot be found to break it. It is claimed a machine has just been invented to do this work, and if this is true, almost double the usual amount of hemp will be raised in Garrard.

No Prisoners.

When the two women were liberated, it left the Garrard county jail without a prisoner. This is pretty bad for clever "Uncle Dave," but speaks well for the county. The two white women, mentioned in last issue, were the only prisoners for several days. "Unc" did not carry the keys for some time past, leaving them in the constant care of some one else about the house.

"Just For Fun."

The senior class of the Lancaster High School will present the above laughing farce, at Court House, Friday evening the 10th. Much work is being put on the preparation, and a splendid show will be given. Seats on sale at McRoberts' drug store. Prices 25c and 50c. 4-2t

If you are interested in the school, attend the play "Just For Fun," at Court-house Friday April 10.

A Wise Move.

When the Richmond lodge of Elks re-elected Hon. Jerry Sullivan Exalted Ruler for the third term they proved their wisdom, truly. With plenty of good sense, polished manners, gentlemanly bearing and a full stock of ready wit, Jerry Sullivan is indeed a man in whose company it is a great pleasure to be. We deeply regretted our inability to attend the election and cast a vote for him.

To Correspondents.

Please write upon one side of the paper only. Always sign your name. Unless price is stated, don't report stock sales. Avoid neighborhood jokes and NEVER write anything that will wound the feelings of any one. If you have a knife sharpened for a man, go to him about it. The paper is a poor weapon with which to fight.

Dick Bradley, a carpenter and former resident of Lancaster, died at Springfield, and was buried in Harrodsburg. His wife survives.

The life-motion pictures, shown by the Ideal Entertainers, are the finest to be seen anywhere. These alone are worth the price of admission. Court House Wednesday, the 22nd. a-10-2t

To Tobacco Growers.

The Burley Tobacco Growers Association Co., offers fifty per cent more for tobacco than the trust does. Mr. W. B. Hawkins will address the growers on this subject at Court House next court day at 1:30. a-10-td

The Christian Endeavor will give a peanut social in the Sunday School room, Christian church, next Monday night, at 7 o'clock. As matters pertaining to the organization will be discussed, only members are expected. Every one must bring a sack of peanuts.

A Nuisance.

The porters of the various hotels crowd around the car steps and yell for their houses, completely blocking the passway and making themselves a nuisance generally. This is prohibited every where else, and there's no reason why it should be permitted here. The other night, the brakeman had to threaten to comb some one's head with his lantern before the passengers could get out. A policeman should go to the 8:26 train any way.

Newspaper Change.

Mr. Owen McIntyre has sold his interest in the Danville Advocate to Mr. Craig Ralston, his partner. Mr. Ralston will continue to run the Advocate right up to date, while Mr. McIntyre has purchased the Danville Courier plant and will devote all his time to publishing the Kentucky Farmer. The Ky. Farmer has grown so rapidly that it became necessary to find a home of its own. If you want one of the best agricultural papers published, you should subscribe for it. We will make you a good clubbing offer.

Change in Church Service.

Bible study, 9:30, preaching 10:45 a. m., preaching 7:30 p. m. Monday, 7:30 official board; Tuesday 7:30 p. m., devotional, S. S. lesson, topic by pastor. Hearty welcome to visitors and strangers. By official action of its board the name of "Memorial Methodist Church" was recently decided as local designation of the Lancaster church. The title is entirely appropriate, in view of memorial offerings made in its erection and especially representing the beautiful stained glass window perpetuating worthy donors among the living and dead.

Few fine milk cows for sale.

4-10-td Lancaster Dairy.

The teachers of the primary class will give a peanut hunt to the children of the Baptist Sunday School in the beautiful yard of Mr. Jno. K. West April 18, at 2 o'clock.

Putting the Bell-Cord.

After a pleasant vacation at Hot Springs and other western points, Capt. Phil Price is back in charge of the day trains. The trip was a benefit to him, we are glad to note.

Special Meeting.

There will be a special meeting for men and boys over 12 at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Chumby will preside, and tell us the other ministers will take part. All men and boys should be there.

Kind Words for The Record.

Louisville Times:—The Central Record of Lancaster, one of the brightest, breeziest and best of country papers of Kentucky, has entered upon the fourteenth year of its existence. The Record has one of the best equipped offices in the State. Its success is due to the able efforts of genial Louis Landram, its editor and proprietor.

Another Sad Death.

The many friends of the family extend deepest sympathy on the death of Mrs. Bessie Baughman Taylor, which occurred in Paris Thursday at 3 p. m. Mrs. Taylor was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Baughman, formerly of this city. She was twenty-one years of age the day of her death. She was an exceedingly pretty girl, attractive and bright. Another sister, Mrs. Lytleton Purnell, died in Paris only two months previous, and the blow is indeed a severe one to the relatives and friends. Funeral services were conducted at Paris and the remains interred there. Mr. Baughman and Mrs. Bettie Landram attended the services having been summoned a short time before her death.

A Bad Wreck.

Saturday night, as a freight train was passing through the second tunnel beyond Ford, the flange on a wheel broke, causing a heavily loaded car to leave the track, knocking out the supporters of the overhead timbers. Tons of slate came down on the train, mashing five cars to splinters. The head end had passed out, and the slate struck the train about three cars ahead of the caboose. It took a large force of hands until Sunday night to clear the tunnel. Passengers on No. 11 had to climb over the great hill and were brought on by a freight engine to Richmond, where Capt. Joe Arnold and faithful "Uncle Henry" Lammers brought the train on to Rowland, passing Lancaster about 11:15. The wreck will cost the company several thousand dollars.
